

Looking at Jesus

In today's Gospel reading Jesus took three of His apostles up a mountain where they saw Him shining like the sun and talking with Moses and Elijah. They were talking about how Jesus was going to go to Jerusalem and be killed. The apostles were amazed and confused.

Jesus let the apostles see Him in glory to help them to understand why He had to suffer and die. We won't see Jesus in His glory until we see Him in Heaven, but it is good for us to think about the things that He and Moses and Elijah were talking about.

Look at a crucifix or picture of Jesus on the cross every day. Think about how much He loves you, and think about how you act toward Him. What can you do to love Him better? Lent is a good time to try to find ways to love Jesus more.

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

VISION 2020-DISCIPLES ON MISSION

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT - MARCH 13TH 2022 - YEAR C

Listening to Him.

In today's Gospel, we go up to the mountain with Peter, John, and James. There we see Jesus "transfigured," speaking with Moses and Elijah about His "exodus." The Greek word "exodus" means "departure." But the word is chosen deliberately here to stir our remembrance of the Israelites' flight from Egypt.

By His death and resurrection, Jesus will lead a new Exodus liberating not only Israel but every race and people, not from bondage to Pharaoh, but from slavery to sin and death. He will lead all mankind, not to the territory promised to Abraham in the First Reading, but to the heavenly commonwealth that Paul describes in the Epistle.

Moses, the giver of God's law, and the great prophet Elijah, were the only Old Testament figures to hear the voice and see the glory of God atop a mountain. The Gospel scene closely resembles God's revelation to Moses, who also brought along three companions and whose face also shone brilliantly; but when the divine cloud departs, Moses and Elijah are gone. Only Jesus remains. He has revealed the glory of the Trinity: the voice of the Father, the glorified Son, and the Spirit in the shining cloud.

Jesus fulfills all that Moses and the prophets had come to teach and show us about God. He is the "chosen One" promised by Isaiah, the "prophet like me" that Moses had promised. Far and above that, He is the Son of God.

"Listen to Him," the Voice tells us from the cloud. If, like Abraham, we put our faith in His words, one day we too will be delivered into "the land of the living" that we sing of in the Psalm. We will share in His resurrection, as Paul promises, our lowly bodies glorified like His.

Planting a Lenten Garden

Here's what you need to plant in your garden:

Three rows of Squash:

- 1. Squash gossip
- 2. Squash criticism
- 3. Squash indifference

Seven rows of Peas:

- 1. Prayer
- 2. Penance
- 3. Perseverance
- 4. Politeness
- 5. Preparedness
- 6. Purity
- 7. Patience

Seven Heads of Lettuce:

- 1. Let us be unselfish and loyal
- 2. Let us be charitable
- 3. Let us search the scriptures
- 4. Let us not be weary in well doing
- 5. Let us be obedient
- 6. Let us be truthful
- 7. Let us love one another

No garden is complete without Turnips:

- 1. Turn up for daily Mass and weekly Eucharistic Adoration
- 2. Turn up for prayer and Bible study
- 3. Turn up with a smile, even when things are difficult
- 4. Turn up with determination to do your best in God's service

Conclude with Thyme:

thyme with God. thyme for fun, thyme for rest,

Water freely with patience and cultivate with love.

There will be much fruit in the garden because you reap what you sow!
